INSTRUCTIONS TO THE REGISTRANT

If the space provided in the Form is not sufficient to include all the information requested, the registrant is entitled to edit this Form to expand the required section(s) or paragraph (s).

It is forbidden to modify or eliminate any section or paragraph of this Form. Any submission breaching this obligation shall be considered incomplete or invalid.

If you have any doubt regarding how to fill this Form, the information to be attached to this Form and/or require further clarification, you may contact the Public Utilities Regulatory Commission at the following email address: sgapplication@purc.gd.

Please note that the information on this Form is subject to review and change by the PURC.

Who is obliged to submit this Form?

If you self-generate or intend to self-generate electricity, you may be exempted from the obligation of obtaining a licence in the following circumstances:

- a) if you possess electricity generation capacity and equipment for such generation, and use of electricity from any source for your own use during periods when the network licensee is prevented by weather or other emergent circumstances from supplying electricity to such self-generator;
- b) if you generate electricity from renewable resources for your own consumption;
- c) if you generate electricity exclusively for your own consumption and use and you are located in an area which is not supplied with electricity by any grid - network licensee;

If in accordance with the previous paragraph, you are exempted from the obligation of obtaining a licence and you have not interconnected and do not intend to interconnect your generation facilities to the electricity network of the grid system, you are subject to the following:

- a) you are not required to obtain a permit provided that you maintain your generation facilities disconnected from the electricity network of the Network License;
- b) you are obliged to complete this Form as prescribed and submit to the Commission.

How to submit this Form?

This Form shall be fully completed, in writing, and signed by the registrant or an authorised representative.
